The leading Roman Catholic paper of England testifies to the zeal of the Ritualists and unts upon many converts to the church of ome through the differences of the low and Rome through the differences of the low and high church party. It says: 'It is morally impossible that men like Mr. Sedgwlek, of Manchester, or Furchas, of Brighton, can continue to work under superiors holding the clews of the Bishops of Manchester and Chlchester. Even amongst the Ritualists, who profess to dislike "Rome" the most, there is a palpable—though, no doubt, mnconsclous to themselves—drawing nearer and nearer toward us. In spite of their educational prejudices, and notwithstanding the horrors of drees, and notwithstanding the norrors of "Popery" in which they have been brought up, the lest men of the Catholic school in the Chnrch of England are heginning to see that a center of unity is absolutely necessary if the Catholic faith is to he preserved; and more and more do they lament the terrible boudage of Erastianism with which

From the New Albany Ledger of yesterday we have a report of the preliminary examination in the case of Mrs. Meilses J. Morton, who shot and killed Scott S. Moore, of that city, on Tuesday, The examination was before Mayor itari, sit ing as a magistrate. Long before e o'clock a crowd had o'diected about the City Court room, and soon after the prisoner entered the room. It was densely thronged. The crowd was so large that it was determined to adjourn to the court House, as it was evident that no business could be transacted in a less space than it afforded. It, too, was soon crowded with spectators, and a larger number of persons was never before assembled there. The State was ably represented by Robe in
